For some of your personal information you will have a legal, contractual or other requirement or obligation for you to provide us with your personal information. If you do not provide us with the requested personal information we may not be able to admit you as a member or we may not be able to properly perform our contract with you or comply with legal obligations and we may have to terminate your membership.

For other personal information you may not be under an obligation to provide it to us, but if you do not provide it then we may not be able properly to perform our contract with you. Where you have given us your consent to use your personal information in a particular manner, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time, which you may do by contacting us as set out in the ‘Contact us’ section below.

Please note however that the withdrawal of your consent will not affect any use of the data made before you withdrew your consent and we may still be entitled to hold and process the relevant personal information to the extent that we are entitled to do so on bases other than your consent. Withdrawing consent may also have the same effects as not providing the information in the first place, for example we may no longer be able to provide certain member benefits to you.

5 Direct marketing

Email, post and SMS marketing: from time to time, we may contact you by email or SMS with information about events, products and services in which we believe you may be interested.

We will only send marketing messages to you in accordance with the marketing preferences you set. You can then let us know at any time that you do not wish to receive marketing messages - see the ‘Contact us’ section at the end of this notice. You can also unsubscribe from our marketing by clicking on the unsubscribe link in the marketing messages we send to you.

6 Disclosure of your personal information

We share personal information with the following parties:

- any party approved by you;
- to any governing bodies or regional bodies for skydiving to allow them to properly administer the sport on an international basis;
- other service providers: for example, payment processors, magazine and newsletter distributors, auditors, election scrutineers, data analysis, CCTV contractors, contractors or suppliers and IT services (including membership management, website, video- and teleconference services);
- agencies and bodies associated with administration of the sport, nationally and internationally, including for the purposes of administering competitions and awards: The Royal Aero Club of the United Kingdom, the International Parachuting Commission (IPC), the World Air Sports Federation (FAI), and host centres of domestic and international skydiving competitions;
- our supply chain partners and sub-contractors, such as couriers, import/export agents, shippers;

- where you have given your express for us to do so, our commercial partners: for the purposes of providing you with information on any special offers, opportunities, products and services and other commercial benefits;
- the Government or our regulators: where we are required to do so by law or to assist with their investigations or initiatives;
- police, law enforcement and security services: to assist with the investigation and prevention of crime and the protection of national security.

We do not disclose personal information to anyone else except as set out above.

7 Transferring your personal information internationally

The personal information we collect is not transferred to and stored in countries outside of the UK and the European Union except if you are a British Skydiving Member competing in a duly sanctioned international competition in a country outside of the UK and the European Union.

Some of these jurisdictions require different levels of protection in respect of personal information and, in certain instances, the laws in those countries may be less protective than the jurisdiction you are typically resident in. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your personal information is only used in accordance with this privacy notice and applicable data protection laws and is respected and kept secure and where a third party processes your data on our behalf we will put in place appropriate safeguards as required under data protection laws. For further details please contact us by using the details set out in the 'Contact us' section below.

Should we have concerns or be unsure about the quality of data protection in a certain country or region of the world, we shall share this with relevant data subjects in order for them to decide whether or not they wish to compete/officiate/visit that country as part of a British delegation or otherwise to represent British Skydiving.

8 How long do we keep your personal information?

The duration for which we retain your personal information will differ depending on the type of information and the reason why we collected it from you. However, in some cases personal information may be retained on a long-term basis: for example, personal information that we need to retain for legal purposes will normally be retained in accordance with usual commercial practice and regulatory requirements including financial accounting requirements.

Information that may be relevant to third party public liability and/or personal injury claims, or discrimination claims, may be retained until the limitation period for those types of claims has expired. For personal injury or discrimination claims this can be an extended period as the limitation period may typically extend until years after you have been a member.

We may therefore retain historic records of lapsed members for a period of up to 7 years.

CCTV records which are held for no more than 30 days unless we need to preserve the records for the purpose of prevention and detection of crime.

It is important to ensure that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up-to-date, and you should let us know if anything changes, for example if you change your telephone number or email address. Most members will be able to update some of the personal information we hold about you through our online membership portal and we encourage you to do use this facility to help us to keep your personal data up-to-date. Alternatively, you can contact us using by using the details set out in the 'Contact us' section below.

9 Your rights in relation to your personal information

You have the following rights in relation to your personal information:

- the right to be informed about how your personal information is being used;
- the right to access the personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the correction of inaccurate personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the erasure of your personal information in certain limited circumstances;
- the right to restrict processing of your personal information where certain requirements are met;
- the right to object to the processing of your personal information;
- the right to request that we transfer elements of your data either to you or another service provider; and
- the right to object to certain automated decision-making processes using your personal information.

You should note that some of these rights, for example the right to require us to transfer your data to another service provider or the right to object to automated decision making, may not apply as they have specific requirements and exemptions which apply to them and they may not apply to personal information recorded and stored by us. For example, we do not use automated decision making in relation to your personal data. However, some have no conditions attached, so your right to withdraw consent or object to processing for direct marketing are absolute rights.

Whilst this privacy notice sets out a general summary of your legal rights in respect of personal information, this is a very complex area of law. More information about your legal rights can be found on the Information Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/>

To exercise any of the above rights, or if you have any questions relating to your rights, please contact us by using the details set out in the 'Contact us' section below.

If you are unhappy with the way we are using your personal information, you can also complain to the UK Information Commissioner's Office or your local data protection regulator. We are here to help and encourage you to contact us to resolve your complaint first.

10 Changes to this notice

We may update this privacy notice from time to time. When we change this notice in a material way, we will update the version date at the bottom of this page. For significant changes to this notice we will try to give you reasonable notice unless we are prevented from doing so. Where required by law we will seek your consent to changes in the way we use your personal information.
